At Your Service - Nigel Ogden+

Fifteen Practical Voluntaries for Church Organists.

Easy liturgical organ music, in an accessible modern style is always welcome, and Nigel Ogden, well-known contributor to Stainer & Bell's 'Light Organ' series and host of 'the Organist Entertains' on BBC Radio 2, has composed fifteen new pieces for use within the communion service or other acts of worship. They are suitable both for traditional and electronic keyboard instruments, and may be performed on single or multi-manuals, with the bass played optionally on pedals as desired. There are fanfares and festal voluntaries to accompany the dramatic high-points of the liturgy, as well as tranquil melodies for reposeful moments of meditation and private devotion, plus preludes on familiar hymns to collect the thoughts of the whole congregation. Flexibility is the watchword of At Your Service, which offers a really practical contribution to the repertoire of useful music for church organists.

Canon in D - Pachelbel, Johann+

Arranged for Organ by Nigel Ogden

Among the all-time classical favourites and an essential item in any church organist's library of service music, Pachelbel's Canon in D receives a fresh and original makeover in this new arrangement by the celebrated recitalist and radio host Nigel Ogden. Scored by the composer for an ensemble of three violins and bass, the piece adapts beautifully for performance on the organ. Ogden's treatment retains all the soothing, melodious character of the original masterpiece, while falling easily within the range of amateur players who are able to manage a simple pedal part.

Price: £7.99

Great Fugues For Organ+

A style that relies upon counterpoint, or the interplay of two or more motifs, the fugue has captivated listeners for centuries.

This original collection features a tremendous variety of pieces from the fugue's heyday in the Baroque period as well as other eras, each created by a master of the genre. With works by Bach, Buxtehude, Brahms, Schumann and others, all set here for Organ solo.

Price: £8.99

Gustav Holst - Three Movements From The Planets+

Gustav Holst (1874-1934) is widely regarded as one of the most original of 20th century composers, and The Planets, composed in 1914-16, established him as a really popular composer. The work, with its vivid sense of invention and use of driving rhythm, is a masterpiece of the 20th century orchestral repertoire.

Arthur Wills has transcribed these three movements from The Planets for organ to make a superb set of recital pieces or voluntaries. Includes Mars, Venus and Jupiter .

Price: £10.99

New Era - Nigel Ogden+

Written to inaugurate a series of lunchtime concerts at Manchester Town Hall, one of Britain's finest examples of Victorian architecture and home of the magnificent Cavaille-Coll organ. English through and through, it opens with a short fanfare motif which helps to bind the sections together as it marches along with more than a hint of Elgar. Easy under the fingers (and feet) this is a real players piece and would suit any occasion where a little pomp and ceremony is required.

Opera Gala Book One+

The first in a superb set of three books arranged by John Norris. The 6 pieces are all beautifully arranged, with attention to detail, on 2 staves with chord symbols - but really should be used with the bass clef detail for best effect. Performance notes at the beginning of the book are a great help, as is the fingering suggested throughout. This is the easiest of the books, ranging from approx grade 3 - grade 5 standard.

Incredible value.

Price: £6.49

Opera Gala Book Two+

The second in this marvellous series by John Norris. Superb arrangements on 2 staves with chord symbols (but do use the bass clef to gain the best from this book). The performance notes at the start of the book are valuable, and the suggested fingering indispensable. It's worth the effort to learn to play these pieces, which are slightly more difficult than book 1.

Price: £6.4

Opera Gala Book Three+

The third and most challenging book in this series arranged by John Norris, on 3 staves with chord symbols (but you must read bass clef to get the benefit of these superb arrangements. Not for the faint-hearted, the arrangements are approximately grade 6 to grade 8 standard. The performance notes and fingering suggestions are a vital aid. Superb value.

For the intermediate organist - a fun and animated fanfare on 3 staves in B flat major.

Price: £7.99

Saints on a Spree - Nigel Ogden+

Saints on a Spree is a stylish and not altogether reverent fantasy on several popular tunes associated with saintliness. Lively episodes in Latin-American and schmaltzy-waltz mood pull the carpet from under a solemn, hymn-like opening. Things get even more wild when Widor's Toccata from the Fifth Symphony and Brahms's Lullaby put in an appearance. With his usual masterly craftsmanship, Nigel Ogden, leading light-organist and host of long-running Radio 2 series The Organist Entertains, draws all these ideas into a grand and saintly peroration, which will sound as good whether played on an electronic instrument as on a church organ.

The famous toccata and fugue which was originally published as part of The Complete Organ Works of J S Bach. This edition by Charles-Marie Widor and Albert Schweitzer.

Price: £5.50

Toccata Nuptiale+

There being no just cause or impediment to the contrary, Christopher Maxim makes a daring liaison between the music-hall ballad 'Daisy, Daisy' (on pedals) and the grand organ style of Vierne (on manuals) in his Toccata Nuptiale, written for the wedding of a friend whose passions include cycling. The result, which moves along way from the organ loft of Notre Dame, is a splendid addition to the repertoire of wedding music and of light-hearted concert works - and is much simpler to play than a real Vierne toccata!

Price: £4.99

Treasury of Organ Music for Manuals Only+

This anthology contains 46 works by Handel, Mozart, Bach and many others selected and edited specifically for those organists who prefer to play without pedals. The volume features a wealth of pieces including Chaconnes, Toccatas and Fugues, and is available at a very attractive price.

Price: £13.99

Tuba Tune - Norman Cocker+

Probably the most famous of all Tuba Tunes. The versatility of Norman Cocker was legend. Not only was he a distinguished organist at Manchester Cathedral, but also a cinema organist - often rushing from the cinema to the Cathedral and back again wearing carpet slippers! In this work, Cocker combines the grandeur of the church organ with the showmanship of the cinema organ to great effect.

Price: £5.50
