Prayer of the Day

Almighty and ever-living God, you fulfilled the promise of Easter by sending the gift of your Holy Spirit. Look upon your people gathered in prayer, open to receive the Spirit's flame. May it come to rest in our hearts and heal the divisions of word and tongue, that with one voice and one song we may praise your name in joy and thanksgiving; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in us the fire of your love. Alleluia.

BACKGROUND

For use in Order of Service or Parish Magazine

Like Easter, the Christian festival of Pentecost or Whitsun (which takes place 50 days later), has its origins in a Jewish celebration.

The Apostles were gathered in Jerusalem for the Feast of Pentecost (a day of thanksgiving for the first fruits of the harvest) and to commemorate the receiving of the Ten Commandments by Moses on Mount Sinai (Acts 2:1-4).

And when the feast of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the houses where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the spirit gave them utterance.

Fired with evangelical zeal, the Apostles sought to spread the 'good news' throughout the world, and the birth of the Christian Church is often said to date from that first Whitsun.

READINGS AND PSALM

Acts 2 : 1-21

In Jerusalem, many pilgrims had come for the great Pentecost Harvest Festival. As Jesus had promised, the Holy Spirit of God came upon the gathered company of disciples with great power. They found themselves impelled to proclaim the resurrection Gospel to everyone who would listen.

The Psalm - Psalm 104: 26-36, 37b

The Day of Pentecost - Whitsunday June 12, 2011

1 Corinthians 12 : 3b-13

Paul explains something of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives: he is active everywhere, inspiring different gifts in different people. All should work together in the unity of the church which is now Christ's body on earth.

John 20 : 19-23

John's Gospel is unique in speaking of the gift of the Holy Spirit before the events of Pentecost. Here, Jesus appears to his friend in a locked upper room on the evening of the first Easter; he gives them his peace, a breath of the Spirit and a commission to pronounce forgiveness of sins.

God,
who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, who liveth and reigneth with thee,

in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end.

Collect Two

Almighty God,
who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles

By the power of the same Spirit strengthen us to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

INTERCESSION

Holy Spirit, fill us

“The harvest the Spirit gives is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.” Galatians 5:22

Loving Lord,
when we consider the stressful needs of today
in an aggressive and competing world;
when we must stand firm and resolute awaken in us a loving and gentle spirit;
when we seek to resist the powers of evil walk with us and direct our paths to the way of justice and peace.

“Now, the Lord is Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.” 2 Corinthians 3:17

Come, Holy Spirit of God, turn our faltering words into steps of mercy,
our heartfelt yearnings into touches of care,
and our wandering thoughts into steeled resolve.
Turn our prayers into the actions of your loving purpose.

PRAYERS

Almighty God, renew us day by day by thy Holy Spirit, in whom you have sealed us for your own: Let all bitterness be put away from us, all anger and evil-speaking and malice; may we be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as you, our Father, has forgiven us for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named: Grant that, according to the riches of your glory, we may be strengthened with power through your Spirit in our inner being; that Christ may dwell in our hearts by faith; that we, being rooted and grounded in your love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is its length and breadth and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that we may be filled with all the fullness of God.

O God, on this day you open the hearts of your faithful people by sending into us your Holy Spirit. Direct us by the light of that Spirit, that we may have a right judgment in all things and rejoice at all times in your peace, through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Almighty God, who on this day didst open the way of eternal life to every race and nation
by the promised gift of thy Holy Spirit:

A Prayer to the Holy Spirit

O God the Holy Ghost
Who art light unto thine elect Evermore enlighten us.
Thou who art fire of love
Evermore enkindle us.
Thou who art Lord and Giver of Life,
Evermore live in us.
Thou who bestowest sevenfold grace,
Evermore replenish us.
As the wind is thy symbol,
So forward our goings.
As the dove, so launch us heavenwards.
As water, so purify our spirits.
As a cloud, so abate our temptations.
As dew, so revive our languor.

Christ Jesus,
before ascending into heaven,
You promised to send the Holy Spirit to Your apostles and disciples.
Grant that the same Spirit may perfect in our lives the work of Your grace and love.

Grant us the Spirit of Fear Of The Lord that we may be filled with a loving reverence toward You.

The Spirit of Piety that we may find peace and fulfillment in the service of God while serving others;

The Spirit of Fortitude that we may bear our cross with You and, with courage, overcome the obstacles that interfere with our salvation;

The Spirit of Knowledge that we may know You and know ourselves and grow in holiness;

The Spirit of Understanding to enlighten our minds with the light of Your truth;

The Spirit of Counsel that we may choose the surest way of doing Your will,
seeking first the Kingdom;

Grant us the Spirit of Wisdom that we may aspire to the things that last forever;

Teach us to be Your faithful disciples and animate us in every way with Your Spirit. Amen.

Prayer of St. Bonaventure to the Holy Spirit

Lord Jesus, as God's Spirit came down and rested upon you,
May the same Spirit rest on us,
Bestowing his sevenfold gifts.
First, grant us the gift of understanding,
By which your precepts may enlighten our minds.
Second, grant us counsel, by which we may follow in your footsteps on the path of righteousness.
Third, grant us courage,
by which we may ward off the enemy's attacks.

The Day of Pentecost - Whitsunday June 12, 2011

Fourth, grant us knowledge, by which we can distinguish good from evil.
Fifth, grant us piety,
by which we may acquire compassionate hearts.
Sixth, grant us fear,
by which we may draw back from evil
and submit to what is good.
Seventh, grant us wisdom,
that we may taste fully the life-giving sweetness of your love.

SERMON OUTLINE

Jn 20:19-23 Receive the Holy Spirit

Everything had happened so fast - difficult to make sense of it all... Early on the 1st day of the week MM had gone to the tomb & saw that the stone had been removed (20.1). Then Peter & John had run to the tomb- empty; & then Jesus appeared to Mary in the garden & she went to the disciples...

1. The Fear of the Jews:- The disciples had witnessed the hatred & hostility of the authorities - so for security the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for the fear of the Jews. The future seemed bleak - disciples hiding behind locked doors - fearful frightened men... Would the authorities come for them? Would they suffer the same fate as Jesus?

2. The Figure of Jesus:- Jesus came with & stood in their midst.. He had risen indeed - further reassured them with a) his Presence - proof of the Resurrection - 1 Cor 15:5,6 - he appeared to Peter & then to the 12. After that he appeared to more than 500 of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living - story could be verified!

b) his Peace - v21 Peace be with you. Their troubled hearts/minds needed this peace - so too do ours/our world!

3. The Forgiveness of Sins: he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit...In addition to this wonderful gift Jesus brought pardon, joy, peace, calm & reassurance... He gave them authority to pronounce the forgiveness of sins - if you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven. No mere man can forgive sins - but it is the church's privilege to convey his message of forgiveness > BCP Absolution:- He pardoneth & absolveth all them that truly repent & unfeignedly believe his holy gospel. By Norman Porteous

Pentecostal insights - This sermon was first preached in the Metropolitan Community Church of Manchester. It contains several useful insights. One such is expressed thus:

The Day of Pentecost - Whitsunday June 12, 2011

“The Spirit redefined what it meant to be the people of God. Pentecost was an act of great inclusion.

* In a day when women were treated like property, God gave them the Spirit in equal measure.

* To older ones discarded and discounted, God gave the Spirit.

* To the young, often abused and neglected, God gave the Spirit.

* To the oppressed, the enslaved, God gives the liberating Spirit.

* God was personally breaking down barriers welcoming those who too often get left out.”
