Reports to mark World Refugee Day. Christian Today reports that the Salvation Army is encouraging communities to help refugee families through the Government's community sponsorship scheme. The article mentions that the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, and Home Secretary, Amber Rudd, launched the Community Sponsorship Scheme last July at Lambeth Palace. Premier focuses on a tweet by Archbishop Justin who said: "On World Refugee Day, let's pray for #refugees around the world – and uphold the values of generosity, hospitality and solidarity."
